

I am opposed to easing the restrictions on broadcast ownership. FCC rules should foster competition rather than limit. Easing broadcast ownership rules will accelerate the trend toward broadcast monopolies. The FCC needs to represent the interests of the American people, not just a few big companies.